Gennarelli, who has known SUBJECT since April 1965, stated substantially as follows:

Source first met SUBJECT in April 1965 when MARTI started to work in the same department as Source at MIAA, and he pursued a daily business association with SUBJECT until HE left MIAA to enter the United States Army in May 1968. Source had no social contact with SUBJECT, and had not seen MARTI since May 1968. SUBJECT worked at MIAA as a Utility Clerk, Utility Clerk Supervisor and finally as a Tabulating Machine Operator. HE was very highly regarded by HIS associates at MIAA and everyone was sorry to see HIM leave.

SUBJECT has a brother and young sister, names unknown, who also resided in HIS household. HE is a high school graduate, and attended college at night, further details unknown. Source had no knowledge of SUBJECT'S employment prior to MIAA. Source believed that SUBJECT and HIS parents were originally from Puerto Rico.

SUBJECT is of excellent moral character and discretion. HE is dependable, mature and emotionally stable. SUBJECT has had no known difficulty with law enforcement agencies, and HE manifested no undesirable personal habits. HE firmly believes in the principles of a free democratic society and is considered loyal to the United States. Source had no knowledge of the degree of influence exercised over SUBJECT by HIS parents. SUBJECT had no known organizational affiliations, and Source had no knowledge concerning HIS foreign travels, relatives residing abroad, or business interest in foreign countries.
